ORDER

WOLF, D.J.

March 15, 2012

It is hereby ORDERED pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 615 that each person who may be a witness at the evidentiary hearing or trial in the above-captioned case:

1. Shall not discuss this case, including but not limited to his prospective testimony, with any other witness;
2. Shall be excluded from the courtroom except when testifying, unless he is a party or the designated representative of a party;
3. Shall not after testifying tell any prospective witness what he was asked or answered.

This Order shall not operate to prevent counsel from conferring with a witness prior to his testimony. However, unless protected by the attorney-client privilege, such communications may be explored on direct and/or cross-examination of the witness.
